A group of people, likely students, are holding a large white rectangular sign. The sign features the text "Thank You" in a large, black, cursive font, and "For being a great teacher" in a smaller, black, sans-serif font below it. In the center of the sign is a single, vibrant orange and yellow flower. The hands of the people holding the sign are visible around the edges of the white paper. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Thank You

For being a great teacher
